madisoncountyal.gov/probate/home.shtml
Ragland was first elected probate judge in 2000. He was the county's tax collector from 1984 to 2000. The probate judge oversees wills, administration of estates, adoptions, involuntary mental commitments, marriage licenses, land condemnations and redemption, name changes, notary commission, and records real estate transactions and other legal documents. The probate judge is the chief election officer in the county and is a member of the canvassing board that certifies elections with the sheriff and circuit clerk.

Sheriff

Blake Dorning
Courthouse Room 206, 256-532-3412
sheriff@madisoncountyal.gov
madisoncountyal.gov/sheriff/

The sheriff is the highest-ranking law-enforcement official in the county. Dorning and 111 sworn deputies are responsible for the county's 844 square miles. The sheriff's 178-member correctional staff maintains the county's jail facilities, which have a capacity of about 1,000 prisoners. The sheriff is a member of the canvassing board that certifies election results with the probate judge and the circuit clerk. The sheriff is also in charge of security for voting machines and ballots.

Tax Assessor

Fran Hamilton
Courthouse Room 121, 256-532-3350
taxassess@co.madison.al.us
madisoncountyal.gov/services/taxa/

The tax assessor's office prepares assessment information of property for ad valorem taxation. This office evaluates applications for tax exemptions allowed under state law, listens to challenges to assessments, and maintains records of property ownership.

Tax Collector

Lynda Hall
Courthouse Room 116, 256-532-3370
taxcol@madisoncountyal.gov
madisoncountyal.gov/services/taxc/

To pay taxes online, log on to <https://certifiedpayments.net/index.aspx>

The office is responsible for collecting ad valorem taxes on real estate as well as business personal property. Taxes are due and payable each year on Oct. 1 and become delinquent Jan. 1.
