

LTC Eric S. Crider, Executive Officer
U.S. Army Security Assistance
Training Management Organization

LTC Eric S. Crider is a native of Warner Robins, Georgia. In 1994, he graduated with a B.S and MBA from Georgia College and commissioned as an Armor Officer. His military education includes the Armor Officer Basic and Advance Courses and the United States Army Command and General Staff College.

His previous assignments include: Platoon Leader and Troop XO, 5/17 CAV, 2nd Infantry Division, Korea; Troop XO and Squadron Adjutant, 1/16 CAV, Fort Knox, KY; BDE Planner and BDE S4, 3rd BDE, 1st Infantry Division, GE / Kosovo; Brigade Recon Troop Commander, 3rd BDE, 1st Infantry Division, GE; Observer Controller and TAFT Chief, Light INF Task Force, OPS GRP, National Training Center, Fort Irwin, CA; Chief of Operations (Night), G3, 82nd Airborne Division, Afghanistan; Squadron XO, Task Force Falcon, Iraq; Squadron S3, 1-73 CAV, 2BCT, 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg; Regimental S3, 325th PIR, 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg / Haiti. His most recently served as the Executive Officer, Security Assistance Training Management Organization (SATMO), USASAC, AMC, Fort Bragg, NC.

LTC Crider's awards and badges included the Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Kosovo Campaign Medal, Afghanistan Campaign Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, NATO Medal, Combat Action Badge, the Ranger Tab, Senior Parachutist Badge and the Pathfinder Badge.

LTC Crider and his wife Stephanie are blessed with three children – Erinn, Emily and Liam.