

THOMAS A. HARRAGHY
Chief of Staff
Ministry of Interior - Military Assistance Group
Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Mr. Thomas A. Harraghy assumed the duties of Chief of Staff of The Ministry of Interior – Military Assistance Group (MOI-MAG) on 14 January 2016. In this position he ensures staff planning is completed and staff activities are focused and synchronized in support of program objectives.

Mr. Harraghy is a graduate of North Carolina State University. He was commissioned an Air Defense Artillery Officer in 1987 and served 27 years in the United States Army, retiring as a Colonel. Mr. Harraghy has held numerous leadership positions with his culminating assignment as the Chief, Air and Missile Defense Division for the United States Military Training Mission, Riyadh, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Mr. Harraghy holds two Masters Degrees. One from Murray State University in Management of Technology and the other from the U.S. Army War College in Strategic Studies. His military education includes Command and General Staff College, Defense Institute for Security Assistance Management, and the Air Defense Artillery Advanced and Basic Courses.

Mr. Harraghy and his wife reside in Georgia with their boxer. Their son, daughter-in-law, and 2 grandsons also reside in Georgia. Mr. Harraghy's military awards and decorations include; Defense Superior Service Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (with 7 Oak Leaf Clusters) and Army Commendation Medal (with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters).